

R·H·YODER

Richard and Henry Yoder, inspired by their father's craftsmanship, aspired to follow in his footsteps from a young age. After their father's untimely passing, they resolved to honor his legacy by mastering the art of craftsmanship themselves.

Commencing their journey in 2001 within their mother's home, they apprenticed under the tutelage of Floyd Miller, crafting a modest selection of five chair styles. Through dedication and perseverance, they transitioned from their humble beginnings to a larger establishment, culminating in the establishment of RH Yoder, now housed in a cutting-edge 48,000-square-foot facility.

What once began as a childhood admiration has blossomed into a thriving business venture. Richard and Henry are still very involved as proprietors, overseeing a skilled team of craftsmen and offering an extensive range of over 100 chair styles.

Their unwavering commitment to quality and precision shines through in each meticulously crafted piece of furniture, ensuring that their clientele receives nothing short of excellence.
